PROSPECTUS.

This institution, conducted by the Priests of the Congregation of the Mission, was founded Nov. 21st, 1856, and by an Act of the Legislature, April the 20th, 1863, was chartered with power to confer degrees.

It is situated two miles north of Suspension Bridge on the New York bank of the Niagara River.

In sublimity of scenery, it is without a rival in the country, commanding on the southward a magnificent view of the Great Cataract, Seminary Rapids and the Whirlpool, and, on the North, affording an uninterrupted view of the truly picturesque banks of Niagara River and also the broad expanse of Lake Ontario.

It is exceptionally easy of access from every point, North, South, East and West, being within easy walking or riding distance from all the railroads converging at Suspension Bridge, and the boats plying on Lake Ontario.

Located on the most elevated point of "Mont-Eagle Ridge," it receives the full benefit of the pure, invigorating breezes that sweep over the country from the lakes. The salubrity of climate is unsurpassed. Sickness so rarely occurs that the necessity of having an attending physician is precluded.

The buildings are large, the apartments commodious. No pains are spared to secure the comfort of students.

As the name indicates, the "Seminary of Our Lady of Angels" is an ecclesiastical institution intended for the education of aspirants to the Priesthood. Whilst our course of studies embraces all that is required to prepare the youthful candidate for the Sacred Ministry, we, however, deem it advisable to unite the studies proper to a seminary with those which are found in college courses. Our reasons for this are the following:

First—Because, in this country, a priest requires a knowledge not only of things which especially pertain to the sacred ministry, but, also to other branches of education.

Secondly—Because many young men entering a seminary, think they have a vocation for the priesthood, and, after due consideration, ascertain that such is not their calling. In this case the studies pursued in a purely seminary course are inadequate to fit them for secular pursuits; hence, a student may pursue his studies in this Institution, and, if it be God's will that he become a minister of the altar, he has all the advantages of a two-fold education; but if God require his services in a secular avocation, he, by the same system, is qualified for any social position.

The scholastic year consisting of one session, begins on the first Wednesday of September, and terminates on the last Wednesday of June.

The session consists of two terms: the first ends on the first of February; the second ends on the last Wednesday of June.

The epistolary correspondence of the student will be subject to the inspection of the President, or one appointed by him.

Pocket money must be deposited with the Prefect of Discipline. No advance will be made beyond the deposit. Students present on the first Wednesday of September, will have the choice of the sleeping apartments in dormitories which may be assigned them. Each student, on entering, will be placed in classes for which the Board of Examiners deem him fit.

A semi-annual report of each student's progress and conduct is sent to parents or guardians.

To use intoxicating liquors, or to introduce them into the institution, is prohibited under pain of expulsion.

The use of tobacco is strictly forbidden.

In order to secure propriety of bearing and neatness of

No student is allowed to go beyond the Seminary boundary without special permission.

After morning prayers, meditation and the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, the students of the Collegiate Department retire to the Study Hall.

The Rosary is daily recited by all in common.

Evening prayers in chapel terminate the exercises of the day.

Perfect silence is observed from this time until after breakfast, next morning.

Students approach the Sacraments once every two weeks, and, oftener, if their directors deem proper. All festivals of the year are solemnized in the most impressive manner, an edifying feature of which is the reception of Holy Communion by all the students.

The whole religious training is such as to impress upon the student the obligations of rendering religion not only practical, but even an essential part of his daily business. This is effected, however, without enforcing anything that would cause disgust or hypocrisy. The intention is to make each one feel it a duty to be faithful in his religious practices, without being compelled thereto by any disagreeable influence.

COLLEGE ORGANIZATION.

Perpetual Adoration.

This society was organized on the feast of the Epiphany, 1870. Its object is to make reparation to Our Blessed Lord, in the Most Holy Sacrament, for the injuries and insults He has received therein. The perpetual adoration is kept up by two students remaining in turn a quarter of an hour before the altar, each day. This is so arranged as not to interfere with any studies or classes. They are also instructed to pray, during this adoration, for the conversion of sinners, especially for those whose salvation they may be called to promote. This society is under the special direction of the REV. SUPERIOR.

Its games and sports are such as are conducive to health, avoiding those more violent exercises which are not only detrimental but even dangerous in their consequences. ## Niagara Index Publishing House.

The long cherished wish for a college paper which would afford a convenient and pleasant means of communication between the new and the old students of Niagara, at the same time that it would promote a taste for literature and a desire to excel in English composition among the members of the Rhetoric classes, was realized in January, 1870, by the establishment of a neat little paper known as Niagara's Tribute. After one year's existence Niagara's Tribute gave place to the Index Niagarensis, which, on Dec. 15, 1874, in turn, gave place to the NIAGARA INDEX. The composing room has been thoroughly refitted, and large additions of plain and fancy type have been made to the stock already in use. To meet a want that had been felt for some time, a new cylinder press combining all the modern improvements has been procured and is now in use in the INDEX Printing House. With our present facilities we are prepared to execute all kinds of job printing in plain or ornamental types, in the most satisfactory manner. Thus far the career of our college journal has been attended with the most flattering results. The powerful impetus and elevated tone imparted to the literary department of the Seminary are some of the valuable effects attendant on its publication. It is to be hoped that the patrons of the Seminary, and our many other friends, will testify their appreciation of so pleasing a medium of communication with Niagara, by forwarding their own subscriptions, and soliciting their friends to do likewise. It would also be a source of pleasure to us would all the students manifest a special interest in the INDEX and extend a generous support to it by affixing their names to our list. All persons remitting subscriptions are requested to address: Editor NIAGARA INDEX, Seminary of Our Lady of Angels, Suspension Bridge, N. Y.
